The application will allow you to share Internet access with multiple connected computers and mobile devices, and to protect your connection from spam and hacker attacks. Connectify Hotspot will let you discover and connect to all the other wireless hotspots available in the area. With over 130,000 hotspots available, you will be able to instantly connect to all the hotspots around you. You don't have to purchase any special equipment. Connectify Hotspot provides a wireless router that will attach to your laptop, and it will allow you to share the Internet connection with other devices. The application also provides a connection indicator. You can see all the devices you have connected to and which are connected at the time. You can also choose to share only a part of your Internet connection and disconnect the rest. This way you can make sure that your Internet connection is not going to waste when you don't need it. You can see a list of the nearby wireless hotspots, and you can choose to connect to one of them. Connectify Hotspot will also allow you to choose to share an Internet connection with all the hotspots you connect to, and to exclude some of them. You can manually update the hotspots that are found, so that the information about their wireless connection status is up to date. As Connectify Hotspot is a Windows application, you should be able to install it on any Windows PC.
