About This Content

What's Down in Those Mines; It Ain't of This World!

A strange craft fallen from the stars, long the home of a tribe of monstrous mutants worshipping the long-forgotten technology in its ruined bowels, has birthed a new and fearsome scourge. Alien prisoners once bound in its holds have escaped from the derelict, bringing terror and death to a poor mining town while a lone android marshal wanders the wasteland seeking these escaped interplanetary convicts. The heroes find themselves stalked in turn by an unearthly abomination in a twisting catacomb of mines and must dare the precarious ruins of the dangling spacecraft embedded in the cliffs if they are to stop the conquering forerunners of an ancient empire buried centuries ago from rising again to pick up where they left off... with world domination!

Scorpions of Perdition is a Pathfinder Roleplaying Game adventure for 8th to 9th-level characters by Alex Riggs and Nicolas Logue that blends pulp action and tense horror with a dash of sci-fi elements throughout. Pick up this large adventure today and Make Your Game Legendary!

Requires: An active subscription or a one time purchase of a Fantasy Grounds Full or Ultimate license and the included Pathfinder ruleset (3.5E Compatible).

8.6.7. C7. ARMORY (CR 7)

This plain steel room contains several metal cupboards lining each wall and a few simple steel benches are nailed to the wall, which is now the ceiling as this area is upside down.

The door to this room is locked (DC 30). One of the panels in area C4 unlocks it, and a successful DC 25 Use Magic Device check can allow a character to unlock the room from the other side.

CREATURES

A clutch of three gargoyles use this armory as their trophy room, utilizing a large escape hatch (which, due to the room hanging at a 90-degree angle, is now on one wall) to gain access here. They enjoy an uneasy peace with the choker; cannot easily access this room due to it being locked, and by night and rest here during the day, using the benches to hang from, like bats.

Encounter: Armory

TREASURE

Among some more grisly trophies hanging in the lockers here, a laser pistol and a +1 longsword are on display as well, along with a dwarf's dismembered hand still grips the +1 longsword.

The screenshot displays a game interface for a Pathfinder 2e session. The central focus is a map of the Necropolis, showing a circular structure with a central 'Palace' and an 'Irradiated River' flowing through it. The map is surrounded by 'Cliffs' and a 'Base of Dome'. Several windows are open over the map:

- Image - Necropolis: A window showing a glowing green, ethereal scene, likely representing the irradiated river.
- 8.5.2 B2. THE CITY STREETS (CR 9): A text window providing a description of the city streets and the creatures encountered in the mines.
- Three Xill Hatchlings: An encounter window showing the challenge rating (7) and XP (3200) for the encounter. It includes a table for tokens and placements.

The 'Three Xill Hatchlings' window contains the following information:

Token #	Name
3	Xill Hatchling

Below the table, there are three placement icons. The text below the table reads: "CREATURES As the PCs pass a lonely in them from three sides. Encounter: Three Xill Hatchlings".

At the bottom of the screen, there is a chat window and a row of dice (d20, d10, d8, d6, d4, d3, d2, d1).
